

Rookies Kill MGs, Lassies Swamp Harvey

The Rookies' bats clicked out a merry tune Thursday, July 2, in a Girls' Softball game at Waveria, and when the dust had cleared their opponents, the MGs, wound up on the short end of a 21-15 score.

Rookies' Peggy Wood, Jean Brimley, Janice Desmond and Carol Christson had little trouble solving the slants of MG pitcher Nancy Humphreys. Wallop! Wood connected for four singles in five trips, while Bash-er Brimley, Demon Desmond and Burstin' Christson each whacked three for five. One of Miss Christson's blows traveled a sufficient distance to allow her to touch all four bases.

Meanwhile, Marilyn Edwards, the Rookie flinger, was firing a tight 13-hitter for the cause. Although MG Shirley Kilgroe homered, and Mary Roe Sess amassed three for five, the MGs couldn't seem to push across that last touchdown.

In Tuesday, June 30 games, the Miss Fitz won by forfeit over the Flamings, and the Lonia Lassies swamped the Harveys 18-10.

The Lassies' One-Girl Murder-er's Row, Adrienne Sidwell, rapped two triples and two singles in five trips, and Dot "Banjo" Nelson strummed four singles in four at bats for a perfect night.

The Harvey bats were stilled Harvey hot corner, guardian Harvey hot corner guardian Lucy Harlow smacked a home run and a single to lead her team's six-hit attack.

Big Sprint Cars To Go at Carrell

There'll be plenty of racing at Carrell Speedway this weekend with the big sprint cars of the URA racing Saturday night following the weekly AMA motorcycle card Friday night.

Racing Director Don Basile has lined up a top field of the fastest sprint cars in the Southland with many of the favorite drivers at Carrell in action, he announced.

Chuck (Hustling) Hulce will be out to show the same fast pace in the sprint cars that he has shown in the hot rods.

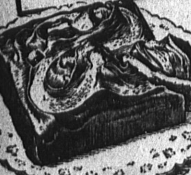

Then there'll be such great drivers as Colby Scroggins, Tiger Nick Valenta, Rosie Roussell, Dempsey Wilson, Bob Chaplin, Howard Gardner, Jack Jordan, and many others.

Barber Shoppers Little League Benefit Planned

Plans for the benefit show at the Civic Auditorium Saturday night, July 26, include outstanding barbershop quartets as well as other out-of-town talent.

The Torrance chapter of the Net proceeds will go to the Torrance Little Baseball League. Tickets for the big event are on sale for one dollar by any member of the Little League or any member of the Barbershop-ers. Tickets will be available also at the box office the night of the show. With the Civic Auditorium only seating 1000 people, it would be advisable to buy tickets well in advance, according to Al Ewalt, financial chairman. The best and most entertaining barbershop quartets obtainable from the Los Angeles, Hollywood, and other areas will guarantee a full evening of entertainment.
